

(c) GROUND THREE: (See Attached) Ground 3

Supporting FACTS: (See Attached)

Did you raise GROUND THREE in the California Supreme Court?

☐ Yes ☒ No. Please See Request for Stay and Abeyance
(EXH. H)

If yes, answer the following:

- (1) Nature of proceeding (i.e., petition for review, habeas petition):
- (2) Case number or citation:
- (3) Result (attach a copy of the court's opinion or order if available):

Ground 3

1) Petitioner was deprived of his Fifth, Sixth
 2) and Fourteenth Amendment rights when his defense
 3) counsel lacked the professional competency, expertise
 4) and experience to be his advocate by failing to
 5) request the trial court instruct the jury on appropriate
 6) and relevant jury instructions and failed to alert
 7) the trial court that they erred in failing to instruct
 8) the jury on previously agreed upon jury instructions.
 9) Petitioner offers the following

11) a. Supporting facts:

12) Petitioner contends that he was denied his
 13) Constitutional right to effective assistance of counsel
 14) and deprived of due process of the law when his
 15) defense counsel should have objected to the trial
 16) court instructing the jury on Calgic 2.02
 17) Sufficiency of circumstantial evidence to prove 18) specific intent or mental state and erred by 19) failing to request the trial court instruct the 20) jury on Calgic 2.01 Sufficiency of Circumstantial Evidence.

22) Petitioner notes that he was charged in
 23) Count 1 Residential Burglary Pen C § 459 and 460.
 24) Count 2 charged Assault with a firearm Pen C §
 25) 245(a)(2). Count 3 charged possession of a firearm
 26) by a felon Pen C § 12021(a)(1) and Count 4 charged
 27) possession of a deadly weapon Pen C § 12020. Both 28) Counts 1 and 2 alleged a personal use of a

- 1) firearm enhancement allegation in violation of
- 2) Pen C§ 12022.5(a) (See CT 01 and CT 02)
- 3)
- 4) Petitioner asserts the trial court instructed
- 5) the jury on Calgic 2.02 jury instruction for the
- 6) specific intent in Count 1 (see CT 24; see also RT 288-89)
- 7)

- 8) However, petitioner claims that the defense
- 9) counsel should have objected to the trial court
- 10) instructing the jury on Calgic 2.02 and should have
- 11) requested the trial court instruct the jury on
- 12) Calgic 2.01, for all petitioner's alleged charges.
- 13) Petitioner basis this claim on the following facts:
- 14)

- 15) The use notes to Calgic 2.02 states: "Calgic
- 16) 2.01 and Calgic 2.02 should never be given together.
- 17) This is because Calgic 2.01 is inclusive of all issues,
- 18) including mental state and/or specific intent, where
- 19) as Calgic 2.02 is limited to just mental state and/or
- 20) specific intent. Therefore, they are alternate
- 21) instructions. If the only circumstantial evidence
- 22) relates to specific intent or mental state, Calgic
- 23) 2.02 should be given. [If the circumstantial
- 24) evidence relates to other matters, or relates to
- 25) other matters as well as specific intent or mental
- 26) state, Calgic 2.01 should be given and not Calgic
- 27) 2.02 [Citations] (See use note to Calgic No 2.02)
- 28)

1) Wherefore, petitioner next claims that the
 2) circumstantial evidence in this case related to
 3) other matters, as well as specific intent and the
 4) defense Counsel should have requested the trial
 5) Court instruct the jury on Caljic 2.01, instead of
 6) Caljic 2.02. Petitioner basis this claim on the
 7) following facts: The trial court stated:

8) "I Guess the question is, is there any 9) circumstantial evidence upon which the 10) people are relying to establish any of the 11) elements of the other counts charged?"
 12) (See RT 267 (21-24)).

 14) Mr Link (the prosecutor): "Just the fact
 15) that he got into his car and sped away
 16) and threw the shotgun out the window, 17) that all goes to ~~prove~~ the fact that he
 18) was trying to get away from the police
 19) for a greater crime than just felony
 20) possession of a firearm. (See RT 267 (25-28); RT 268)

21)
 22) Thus, the trial court refused to give Caljic
 23) 2.01 jury instruction. (See RT 268)

24)
 25) The prosecutor also relied on an inference of 26) petitioner's guilt, that petitioner fled from the scene
 27) during his closing arguments to the jury (see
 28) RT 312; RT 313)

- 1) Moreover, the trial court did instruct the
- 2) jury on Caljic 2.52 Flight after crime (See CT 35;
- 3) See also 292-293) But as petitioner raised on
- 4) direct appeal, that even if the flight instruction
- 5) was appropriate, the pattern instruction required
- 6) modification in this case (See Case No. D046320)
- 7)

- 8) Here, because flight after a crime is
- 9) substantial circumstantial evidence that even if
- 10) the trial court did modify Caljic 2.52 instruction
- 11) and instructed the jury it had to make a
- 12) preliminary factual finding before it could infer
- 13) any consciousness of guilt from petitioner's departure,
- 14) since there was substantial evidence that showed
- 15) an innocent reason for petitioner's departure and
- 16) thus, warranting the need for Caljic 2.01 instruction.
- 17)

- 18) Furthermore, if the jury is permitted to find
- 19) a consciousness of guilt based on circumstantial
- 20) evidence, without making the requisite factual
- 21) finding as set forth in Caljic 2.01, the prosecution's
- 22) burdened is lessened and there is a danger of
- 23) jury reliance upon an irrational or unjustified
- 24) inference in violation of petitioner's Sixth and
- 25) Fourteenth Amendments rights. Additionally, a
- 26) preliminary fact finding as set forth in Caljic
- 27) 2.01, was very important because the jury
- 28) received evidence that petitioner's life had been

1) Threatened by Chris Knox.

3) Jose Castro (the alleged victim) testified for
 4) the prosecution that: From June 2004 through
 5) September 2004, he lived with Rebecca Knox and
 6) Christopher Knox in their two bedroom apartment
 7) (See RT 27-28) During this time he had seen lots
 8) of arguments between Mr. Cunningham (petitioner)
 9) and Mr. Knox (See RT 39 (10-19); RT 40 (1-2)). Where 10) as Chris Knox threatened to kill petitioner ever
 11) since Castro moved into the Knoxes apartment.
 12) (See RT 40) The Knoxes apartment was right
 13) upstairs from petitioner's apartment (See RT 27)

14)

15) Rebecca Knox (prosecution witness) testified
 16) that Christopher Knox and petitioner had 17) previous arguments (See RT 80 (3-4))

18)

19) Nina Talvera (prosecution witness) testified
 20) that Chris Knox yelled at petitioner, that he 21) would kill petitioner if he returned. (See RT 70)

23) Petitioner testified that he was afraid of
 24) Chris Knox because of the bat and Chris
 25) threats (See RT 223) While petitioner stated on 26) cross-examination that he left to avoid arrest
 27) (See RT 207; RT 208), there was substantial 28) evidence demonstrating that petitioner left for

1) innocent (safety) reasons and had nothing to do
2) with consciousness of guilt inference permitted to
3) the charged offenses. Also to the extent the jury
4) might have inferred from the evidence that petitioner
5) left because he was a felon in possession of a
6) firearm, which would not have inferred guilt as to 7) the major charges set forth in Counts 1 and 2. The 8) jury could have also inferred from the evidence
9) that the petitioner left to 'cool down' (See RT 219), 10) just as he left the Knox's apartment, and 11) should ~~have~~^{be} encouraged by the law and certainly 12) carried with it no consciousness of guilt.

14) Also, the 911 tape, which was played for the jury,
15) and for which they had a transcript (See RT 76; RT 77),
16) also revealed Chris Knox threatened to shoot petitioner
17) in the face ["I'm going to shoot you in ~~the face~~ your
18) face, you come up here again"] (See CT 9)

19)
20) Where there is evidence that suggest a reason
21) for a prejudicial circumstantial inference of guilt 22) by flight other than consciousness of guilt, the 23) trial court should have instructed the jury more
24) specifically as to whether or not the evidence 25) shows a consciousness of guilt, and what 26) significance to attach to it, are questions ~~of~~ of 27) fact the jury must determine. Thus, a finding 28) of guilt as to any crime may not be based on

- 1) Circumstantial evidence unless the proved
- 2) circumstances are not only (1) consistent with
- 3) theory that petitioner is guilty of the crime, but
- 4) (2) cannot be reconciled with any other
- 5) conclusions (See Calgic 2.01)

- 6)
- 7) The defense counsel's failure to request the
- 8) trial court instruct the jury on Calgic 2.01, for all
- 9) alleged charges, was an error of constitutional
- 10) dimension in that it permitted the jury to infer
- 11) guilt if it found that petitioner fled, without
- 12) being instructed that it cannot be reconciled with
- 13) any other conclusion, thereby lessening the prosecution's
- 14) burden and violating petitioner's right to trial by
- 15) jury and due process. The permissible inference
- 16) of guilt displayed by the defense counsel's failure
- 17) to request the trial court sua sponte instruct the
- 18) jury on Calgic 2.01, improperly undermined
- 19) petitioner's presumption of innocence on all
- 20) alleged charges.

- 21)
- 22) Petitioner leaving the scene where his life
- 23) had been threatened by a yelling man armed with
- 24) a bat and threatening to shoot petitioner in the
- 25) face, did not support the prejudicial circumstantial
- 26) inference of guilt.

- 27)
- 28) The defense counsel's failure to request the

- 1) trial court instruct the jury on Calgic 2.01,
- 2) left the jury's attention focused towards flight,
- 3) and a highly prejudicial inference of guilt.
- 4) Even though the instruction of flight was
- 5) permissive, petitioner argues that flight was one
- 6) type of substantial prejudicial circumstantial
- 7) evidence of guilt that could "establish guilt" on
- 8) all petitioner's alleged charges, and thus warranting
- 9) the need for the ~~minimum~~ defense counsel to
- 10) request the trial court instruct the jury on
- 11) Calgic 2.01, instead of Calgic 2.02.
- 12)

- 13) Petitioner next contends that the 911 tape
- 14) which was played for the jury, and for which they
- 15) had a transcript (See RT 76; RT 77; See also CT 8-14)
- 16) was substantial circumstantial evidence supporting
- 17) the need for the ~~minimum~~ defense
- 18) counsel to request the trial court instruct the jury
- 19) on Calgic 2.01, as to all petitioner's alleged charges.
- 20) Petitioner basis this contention on the following facts:
- 21)

- 22) 1) Petitioner proclaims that the 911 tape was
- 23) circumstantial evidence because statements are
- 24) nontestimonial when it the course of police
- 25) interrogation under circumstances objectively
- 26) indicating that the primary purpose of
- 27) interrogation is to enable police assistance to meet
- 28) an ongoing emergency. (As in this case)

- 1) 2) Further, circumstantial evidence is defined in
- 2) (Black's Law Dictionary) as 2. All evidence that is not
- 3) given by testimony.
- 4)
- 5) 3) The prosecution relied on the 911 tape
- 6) "circumstantial evidence" during his closing arguments.
- 7) (See RT 310-311)
- 8)
- 9) 4) Also not to go unnoticed, the jury requested
- 10) to re-hear the 911 call "Circumstantial Evidence" during
- 11) deliberation. (See RT 334 (2-6)).
- 12)
- 13) 5) Indeed, the circumstantial evidence of the
- 14) 911 tape was also susceptible of a reasonable
- 15) interpretation and reconciled with other conclusions
- 16) that pointed to the petitioner's: Specifically, Petitioner
- 17) testified that he never pointed the gun at Mr. Castro
- 18) (See RT 224 (7-8)), held the gun at his side the entire
- 19) time (See RT 224 (9-11)) and never pointed it at anybody
- 20) in the apartment (See RT 224 (12-14); See also RT 224
- 21) (25-28); RT 225 (1-2)).
- 22)

23) Petitioner hereby concludes that the 911 tape
24) was also yet another type of substantial prejudicial
25) circumstantial evidence of guilt that could "establish
26) guilt" on all petitioner's alleged charges, which is proved
27) by the fact that the jury wanted to re-hear the 911
28) call during deliberation (See RT 334)

1) and thus, warranting the need for the defense
2) counsel to request the trial court instruct the jury
3) on Caljic 2.01 instead of Caljic 2.02.

4)
5) Petitioner declares that, the fact that the trial
6) court instructed the jury on Caljic 2.02 for Count 1
7) Residential Burglary, and given the defense position,
8) the jury returned a verdict of 'not guilty' on Count 1
9) (See RT 336-339), a reasonable person would only 10) conclude that, had the jury been instructed on the 11) general principles of Caljic 2.01 instruction, as to all 12) counts, might have essentially tipped the scales in the 13) petitioner's favor, especially as to Count 2 Assault
14) with a firearm Pen C § 245(a)(2) and the jury would 15) have also found the petitioner not guilty on Count 2.

17) In addition, not to belabor the point at all, the 18) prosecution admitted that there was a lot of 19) circumstantial evidence, during his closing arguments to 20) the jury. (See RT 311 (3-5)). The prosecution also told 21) the jury that they would get a circumstantial evidence
22) instruction (See RT 322 (4-10)).

24) Therefore, petitioner argues that because the 911
25) tape and flight risk was circumstantial evidence alone,
26) which was relied upon proof of guilt and this evidence
27) was essential in order to procure his conviction (which 28) is proved by the fact the jury wanted to re-hear the

1) 911 tape during deliberation), the defense counsel
 2) was ineffective for failing to request the trial court
 3) instruct the jury on Calgic 2.01 Sufficiency of 4) Circumstantial Evidence -- Generally as to all alleged
 5) charges, was not a harmless error and so painfully
 6) prejudiced the petitioner's ability to defend against 7) the charges since the jury was never instructed on 8) the necessary general principles of law that is 9) governing circumstantial evidence and thus, reversal
 10) is required.

 12)
 13) Petitioner contends that he was denied his
 14) Constitutional right to effective assistance of counsel
 15) and deprived of due process of the law when his 16) ~~appointed~~ defense counsel was ineffective for failing to 17) object and alert the trial court that they prejudicially
 18) erred in failing to sua sponte instruct the jury that 19) Calgic 3.30 'General Intent' applied to the lesser 20) included offense Pen C § 240 and erred in failing to 21) sua sponte instruct the jury that Calgic 9.00 'Assault
 22) Defined' is the same jury instruction for the lesser 23) included offense of Simple Assault Pen C § 240 for 24) Count 2 Assault with a firearm Pen C § 245(a)(2)

 26) Petitioner notes that he was charged in Count 2
 27) Assault with a firearm in violation of Pen C § 245(a)(2)
 28) (See CT 01 and CT02). The trial court, prosecution

- 1) and defense agreed to instruct the jury on Simple
- 2) Assault Pen C § 240, as a lesser included offense of
- 3) Count 2 Assault with a firearm Pen C § 245 (a)(2).
- 4) (See RT 274 (10-28); RT 275 (1-9)).

5)

- 6) However, the trial court instructed the jury
- 7) on Calgic 3.30 for Counts 2, 3 and 4, but upon
- 8) further review of the Petitioner's Reporter's Transcript
- 9) the defense counsel prejudicially erred in failing
- 10) to alert the trial court that they erred in failing
- 11) to sua sponte instruct the jury on Calgic 3.30
- 12) 'General Intent' element of the lesser included
- 13) offense of Simple Assault Pen C § 240 (See CT 39; see
- 14) also RT 294 (1-10)).

15)

- 16) Also not to go unnoticed, upon further review
- 17) of the petitioner's Reporter's Transcript, the defense
- 18) counsel prejudicially erred by failing to alert the
- 19) trial court that they erred by failing to instruct the
- 20) jury that Calgic 9.00 'Assault Defined' jury instruction
- 21) was the same jury instruction for Simple Assault
- 22) Pen C § 240. Petitioner makes this foregoing assumption
- 23) on the following facts:

24)

- 25) 1) Calgic 9.00 jury instruction is both the jury
- 26) instruction for Simple Assault Pen C § 240 and 'Assault
- 27) Defined' for any assault. (See Calgic 9.00 jury
- 28) instruction.)

- 1) 2) Being that petitioner was charged with
- 2) Count 2 Assault with a firearm Pen C § 245(a)(2)
- 3) (See CT 01 and CT 02), the trial court had to give
- 4) Caljic 9.00 'Assault Defined' jury instruction for
- 5) Count 2 Assault with a firearm Pen C § 245(a)(2)
- 6) (See CT 44, CT 45; RT 295 (15-28); RT 296 (1-23); see
- 7) also use note for Caljic 9.02 jury instruction)
- 8)
- 9) 3) Moreover, when the trial court instructed the
- 10) jury on the lesser included offense of Simple
- 11) Assault Pen C § 240 (See CT
- 12) the defense counsel prejudicially erred in failing
- 13) to request the trial court either sua sponte re-instruct
- 14) the jury on Caljic 9.00 Simple Assault Pen C § 240
- 15) Assault Defined, or at the minimum of minimums
- 16) instructed the jury that the previously given Caljic
- 17) 9.00 'Assault Defined' (See RT 295-297) applied to
- 18) the lesser included offense of Simple Assault Pen
- 19) C § 240 (See RT 299-301)
- 20)
- 21) Petitioner proclaims that he was deprived
- 22) of his Constitutional rights because ~~the~~ the jury was
- 23) never instructed or alerted to the general
- 24) principles of law relevant to the lesser
- 25) included offense of Simple Assault Pen C § 240
- 26) ~~there~~, since the trial court gave no indication or
- 27) even mentioned that the previously given Caljic
- 28) 9.00 'Assault Defined' instruction (RT 295-297) was

Ground 3 Supporting facts continued:

- 1) the same exact jury instruction and elements for
- 2) the lesser included offense Simple Assault Pen C §
- 3) 240 (See RT 299-301)
- 4)
- 5) Petitioner claims that since the defense counsel
- 6) prejudicially erred in failing to object and alert
- 7) the trial court that they erred in failing to sua
- 8) sponte instruct the jury on the 'general intent'
- 9) element of the lesser included offense of Pen C §
- 10) 240 and prejudicially erred in failing to re-instruct
- 11) the jury on Caljic 9.00 Simple Assault Pen C § 240 /
- 12) Assault Defined, or at the minimum of minimums
- 13) instructed the jury that the previously given 'Assault
- 14) Defined' Caljic 9.00 jury instruction, was the same
- 15) exact jury instruction and elements for the lesser
- 16) included offense Pen C § 240, was not a harmless
- 17) error. because the jury lacked the general
- 18) principles of law relevant to the lesser included
- 19) offense of Simple Assault Pen C § 240 for Count 2
- 20) Assault with a deadly weapon Pen C § 245(a)(2)
- 21) Had the jury been properly instructed on the
- 22) foregoing jury instructions, elements and the
- 23) general principles of law that is relevant to and
- 24) governing the jury's proper understanding of the
- 25) lesser included offense Simple Assault Pen C § 240,
- 26) might have essentially tipped the scales in the
- 27) petitioner's favor and the jury would have found
- 28) in favor of the petitioner on the lesser included

1) offense of Simple Assault Pen C § 240

2)

3) Petitioner basis this claim on the ~~foregoing~~

4) following trial court's comment:

5) Well, there is evidence, though, of the -- Down
6) on the ground floor kind of waiving the rifle
7) towards the people on the balcony. That might be
8) considered, I suppose, simple assault, if he
9) wasn't aiming at anyone. (See RT 274 (25-28)).

10)

11) Therefore, petitioner argues that for each of these 12) foregoing reason, the defense counsel's failure to object, 13) alert and request the trial court to sua sponte 14) instruct the jury on the lesser included offense of 15) Simple Assault Pen C § 240 for Count 2 Assault with 16) a firearm Pen C § 245(a)(2), was not a harmless error
17) and so painfully prejudiced the petitioner's ability 18) to defend against the charges since the jury was 19) never instructed on the necessary general principles 20) of law that is governing the essential elements of
21) the lesser included offense of Simple Assault Pen
22) C § 240, so that the jury could arrive at a just 23) verdict of Count 2 Assault with a firearm, and thus 24) reversal is highly required.

25)

26) Petitioner contends that he was denied his
27) his Constitutional right to effective assistance of 28) counsel and deprived of due process of the law when

- 1) his defense counsel was ineffective for failing to
- 2) object and alert the trial court that they prejudicially
- 3) erred by failing to sua sponte instruct the jury that
- 4) Caljic 3.30 'General Intent' applied to Caljic 17.19,
- 5) Personal use of a firearm enhancement allegation.

- 6)
- 7) Petitioner notes that he was charged in Count 1
- 8) Residential Burglary Pen C§ 459 and Pen C§ 460.
- 9) Count 2 charged Assault with a firearm Pen C§
- 10) 245(a)(2). Both Counts also alleged a Personal use
- 11) enhancement allegation in violation of Pen C§ 12022.5(a)
- 12) (See CT 01 and CT 02)

- 13)
- 14) Petitioner asserts that the trial court
- 15) instructed the jury on Caljic 3.30 'General Intent', for
- 16) Counts 2, 3 and 4. (See CT 39; See also RT 294 (1-10)). The
- 17) trial court also instructed the jury on Caljic 17.19, for
- 18) the personal use of a firearm enhancement allegation
- 19) (See CT 50; Pen C§ 12022.5(a); See also RT 298-299 (1-5)).

- 20)
- 21) However, upon further review of petitioner's
- 22) Reporter's Transcript, the ~~trial court~~ ^{defense counsel} prejudicially
- 23) erred in failing to alert the trial court that they
- 24) failed to instruct the jury that 'General Intent'
- 25) applied to Caljic 17.19, the personal use of a firearm
- 26) enhancement allegation Pen C§ 12022.5(a), as alleged
- 27) in Counts 1 and 2 (See CT 39; RT 294 (1-10); See also
- 28) RT 284-301)

1) Wherefore, the defense counsel's failure to object
2) and alert the trial court that they failed to instruct
3) the jury that 'General Intent' applied to Caljic 17.19,
4) the personal use of a firearm enhancement allegation
5) Pen C § 12022.5(a), deprived the petitioner of his Fifth
6) Amendment right because it lightened the prosecution's
7) burden of proof of every element of a crime beyond a
8) reasonable doubt. In addition, Caljic 17.19, thus has 9) a major gap because it makes no mention of the 10) mental state which must accompany the menacing
11) display variety of personal use, in which Caljic 3.30
12) 'General Intent' jury instruction must be given. Moreover, 13) had the jury been instructed on the 'general intent'
14) element in Caljic 17.19, as to the personal use of a
15) firearm enhancement allegation Pen C § 12022.5(a),
16) might have essentially tipped the scales in the
17) petitioner's favor and the jury would have found the 18) petitioner 'not guilty' on the personal use of a
19) firearm enhancement allegation, that the jury found
20) him not guilty of in Count 2 (See CT 65; See also 21) RT 336-339)

22)

23) Therefore, petitioner argues that the defense
24) counsel's failure to object and alert the trial court
25) that they prejudicially erred by failing to sua
26) sponte instruct the jury on the 'general intent'
27) element of Caljic 17.19 Personal use of a firearm
28) enhancement allegation Pen C § 12022.5(a), was not

- 1) a harmless error and so painfully prejudiced the
- 2) petitioner's ability to defend against the charges
- 3) since the jury was never instructed on the necessary
- 4) general principles of law that is governing
- 5) circumstantial evidence and thus, reversal is
- 6) required.

8)

- 9) Petitioner contends that he was denied his
- 10) Constitutional right to effective assistance of counsel
- 11) and deprived of due process of the law when his
- 12) court appointed appellate counsel was ineffective for
- 13) failing to request the trial court instruct the jury
- 14) that Pen C § 12022(a) or 12022.3(b), was a lesser
- 15) included enhancement of personally using a
- 16) firearm Pen C § 12022.5(a), as alleged in both
- 17) Count 1 and 2.

18)

- 19) Petitioner notes that he was found guilty of
- 20) Count 2 Assault with a firearm Pen C § 245(a)(2)
- 21) and a Personal use of a firearm enhancement
- 22) allegation in violation of Pen C § 12022.5(a) (See CTO1
- 23) and CTO2).

24)

- 25) Petitioner claims that his defense counsel
- 26) should have requested the trial court to instruct the
- 27) jury on the element of Pen C § 12022(a) or Pen C §
- 28) 12022.3(b) as a lesser included enhancement because

- 1) the jury had evidence deserving of consideration which
- 2) would support a finding that the petitioner was only
- 3) armed but did not use the weapon.

4)

- 5) Wherefore, had the jury been instructed on the
- 6) lesser included offense of Personally armed with a
- 7) firearm Pen C § 12022(a) or 12022.3(b) for the
- 8) personal use enhancement allegation Pen C § 12022.5(a)
- 9) that the petitioner was found 'guilty' of in Count 2
- 10) (See CT 65; See also RT 336-339), it is more likely
- 11) than not that the jury would have opted to choose
- 12) the lesser included enhancement allegation. Petitioner
- 13) basis this argument on the following supporting
- 14) testimony:

15)

- 16) Petitioner testified that on September 12, 2004,
- 17) he was employed as an automation general welder,
- 18) and also did part time landscape work on the
- 19) weekends. (See RT 210; RT 211; RT 216) He lived in
- 20) Bella Vista apartments where he had lived for 16 or
- 21) 17 months (See RT 211)

- 23) In September 2004, petitioner had known the
- 24) Knoxes for about a year. (See RT 212) Petitioner
- 25) would lend Rebecca Knox money, give her rides
- 26) or anything like that (See RT 212; RT 213) Chris Knox
- 27) and petitioner were friends at first (See RT 213),
- 28) but a few months before September 2004, Chris

- 1) Knox threatened petitioner with a bat after petitioner
- 2) confronted Rebecca Knox about putting a "bogus check"
- 3) into petitioner's account (See RT 214; RT 215) Chris
- 4) Knox then flew off the handle and threatened to
- 5) hit petitioner with a bat. (See RT 215).

- 6)
- 7) On September 12, 2004, petitioner worked a
- 8) side landscaping job (See RT 215). He left home
- 9) around 5:00 or 5:30 pm and returned around 10:00
- 10) or 10:30 pm. Before leaving, he saw Castro and
- 11) Chris Knox. He did not know Castro and was not
- 12) speaking with Mr. Knox. (See RT 216) When petitioner,
- 13) left, he left his window open because it was
- 14) over 100 degrees (RT 217; RT 233) When he returned
- 15) home, he found his daughter's bike missing and
- 16) someone had pried open the screen on his window.
- 17) Some of his daughter's clothes were missing along
- 18) with his cell phone and some personal checks (See RT 218)
- 19) and petitioner was baffled about it. Petitioner then
- 20) asked his neighbors in apartment number two if
- 21) they saw anyone (See RT 218) Petitioner then saw
- 22) Rebecca Knox, Castro and some other people on the
- 23) balcony of the Knoxes apartment looking down on
- 24) him (See RT 219) Petitioner asked them if they saw
- 25) anyone and they got 'sarcastic' with petitioner.
- 26) Petitioner then went inside his apartment to cool
- 27) down (See RT 219).

28)

1) Petitioner then went upstairs to the Knoxes
 2) apartment, looking for Rebecca Knox (See RT 219
 3) (27-28) and see if he could retrieve his property
 4) (See RT 220) Petitioner claimed that they had
 5) taken property in the past and when items
 6) were missing in the apartment complex, they
 7) were the first to contact (See RT 220) Petitioner
 8) also claimed that the Knoxes prior roommates took 9) things from his balcony and out of his home prior 10) to this (See RT 235 (15-18)). Castro then told
 11) Petitioner that Rebecca Knox would be back
 12) in about 15 minutes (See RT 221) When Petitioner 13) returned, he saw Rebecca and other people on the 14) Knoxes' balcony that were yelling at him (See RT 222)
 15) Petitioner then went inside his house and armed
 16) himself with his shotgun (See RT 222) Petitioner 17) had obtained the shotgun 6 months earlier, after 18) being jumped at the apartment complex, in 19) which he was hit in the head, requiring 16
 20) stitches (See RT 222 (19-23)) and was afraid of
 21) Chris Knox because of the bat and Chris
 22) threats (See RT 223).
 23)

24) Petitioner was told by Rebecca Knox that
 25) he could come up and look for his property
 26) (See RT 223) Petitioner did not go inside the 27) Knoxes' apartment because Chris Knox came out 28) with a bat. (See RT 223.) Petitioner said that he

- 1) would get back at them and call the police (See RT 224)
- 2)
- 3) Petitioner denied hitting Castro, denied pointing
- 4) a gun at Castro (See RT 224 (7-8)) and held the gun
- 5) at his side the entire time (See RT 224 (9-11)) Petitioner
- 6) also denied ever pointing the gun at anybody in the
- 7) apartment (See RT 224 (12-14); See also RT 224 (25-28);
- 8) RT 225 (1-2)). Petitioner contended that the only
- 9) contact that he had with Castro was to ask him
- 10) if he had petitioner's phone (See RT 225).
- 11)
- 12) Petitioner then went downstairs and to his car.
- 13) Meanwhile, Chris Knox was yelling threats at
- 14) petitioner (See RT 226) Petitioner laid the gun on
- 15) the floor board of his blue Toyota truck. Then
- 16) he drove towards the freeway to head west (See
- 17) RT 227), and planned to go to his mother's
- 18) residence (See RT 256). When petitioner saw the
- 19) police follow him, he threw the gun out the
- 20) window because he was afraid of getting shot
- 21) (See RT 227) Petitioner then immediately submitted
- 22) to law enforcement authority and cooperated
- 23) fully when he was stopped (See RT 159; RT 164)
- 24)
- 25) Nina Talvera (prosecution witness) testified that
- 26) she lived at Bella Vista apartment and awoke the
- 27) night of September 12, 2004, to lots of yelling (See
- 28) RT 168; RT 169) She saw appellant with

- 1) Something in his hands - either a gun or a bat
- 2) (See RT 170). Chris Knox yelled at petitioner that
- 3) he would kill petitioner if he returned (See RT 170),
- 4) petitioner raised the ~~gun~~ item in the air (See RT 170),
- 5) pointing it straight up (See RT 172(24-28)) He
- 6) wasn't necessarily aiming it (See RT 173(1-2)) and
- 7) kept walking towards the parking lot (See RT 173).

8)

- 9) William Bloomfield (prosecution witness) a
- 10) 'armed' security officer at the apartment complex
- 11) (See RT 108), testified that he was on patrol the
- 12) night of September 12, 2004, when he heard yelling,
- 13) "he has a gun" (See RT 102) He then noticed
- 14) petitioner had a gun down to his side (See RT 104(19-28)),
- 15) RT 111(23-28)) and never threatened anybody with
- 16) the gun (See RT 112(1-26)) The petitioner then walked
- 17) to his truck. (See RT 113).

- 19) In addition, the trial court made the following
- 20) comment:

- 21) "Well, there is evidence, though, of the -- Down
- 22) on the ground floor kind of waving the rifle towards
- 23) the people on the balcony. That might be considered,
- 24) I suppose, simple assault, if he wasn't aiming it
- 25) at anyone." (See RT 274(25-28)).

- 27) Thus, the trial court's comment alone prove that
- 28) petitioner was only armed with a firearm. Also petitioner

- 1) D did not deny being armed with the firearm,
- 2) petitioner asserts that he did not use the firearm.
- 3) Moreover, petitioner argues that his testimony was the
- 4) only testimony offered in his defense to the altercation.
- 5) However, petitioner declares that when his testimony
- 6) is taken in context along with the additional
- 7) prosecution witnesses, is proof positive, that there
- 8) is substantial evidence supporting the need for the
- 9) ~~that court to instruct the jury~~, defense counsel
- 10) to request the trial court instruct the jury on
- 11) the lesser included enhancement allegation of
- 12) Personally armed with a firearm Pen C § 12022(a)
- 13) or Pen C § 12022.3(b). Had the defense counsel
- 14) been effective and requested the lesser included
- 15) Personally armed with a firearm enhancement
- 16) allegation Pen C § 12022(a) or Pen C § 12022.3(b), the
- 17) jury might very well have choose the lesser and
- 18) the petitioner would have recieved a far better
- 19) sentence because ~~the~~ the personally armed with
- 20) a firearm enhancement Pen C § 12022(a) or Pen C §
- 21) 12022.3(b), carries 1 year in State Prison, while
- 22) Personally using a firearm Pen C § 12022.5(a),
- 23) carries a minimum of 3 years in State Prison.

- 24)
- 25) Therefore, for each of these aforementioned
- 26) reasons and foregoing testimony, the defense counsell's
- 27) failure to request the trial court instruct the
- 28) jury on the elements that Pen C § 12022(a) or

- 1) Pen C § 12022.3(b), was a lesser included
- 2) enhancement for the personal use of a firearm
- 3) enhancement Pen C § 12022.5(a), was not a
- 4) harmless error, and thus reversal on the
- 5) Personal use of a firearm enhancement allegation
- 6) Pen C § 12022.5(a) is highly required.
- 7)

- 8) Petitioner also notes that each of the aforementioned
- 9) claims has been expressed in ~~the~~ Ground 1 (Argument 1-4)
- 10) and Supporting cases, rules or other authority can also
- 11) be reined therein.
- 12)

- 13) Petitioner hereby argues that each of these foregoing
- 14) reasons, the failure of defense counsel to object, alert
- 15) and or request the trial court instruct the jury on each of
- 16) these aforementioned "jury instructions" constituted ineffective
- 17) assistance of counsel and was not a harmless error. Petitioner
- 18) further argues each of the aforementioned jury instructions
- 19) were either a general principle of law or pinpointed to
- 20) the petitioner's defense and thus were relevant to the
- 21) jury's proper understanding of how the facts and the law
- 22) applied in this case. Each missing jury instruction alone
- 23) was prejudicial to the petitioner's ability to defend against
- 24) the charges and each alone deprived him of his Fifth, Sixth
- 25) and Fourteenth Amendment rights and therefore the
- 26) defense counsel's failure to request each of the
- 27) aforementioned jury instruct was not a harmless error and
- 28) as such requires reversal.

Ground 3 (Argument 2)

1) Petitioner was deprived of his Fifth, Sixth
 2) and Fourteenth Amendment rights when his defense
 3) counsel was ineffective for failing to request the trial
 4) court modify Caljic Number 252, the statutory
 5) flight instruction upon instructing the jury.

 7) Supporting facts:

8) Petitioner contends that he was denied his
 9) Constitutional right to effective assistance of counsel
 10) and deprived of due process of the law when his 11) court appointed defense counsel erred in failing to 12) request the trial court modify Caljic Number 252,
 13) the statutory flight instruction upon instructing
 14) the jury.

 16) During a conference on jury instructions, the 17) People requested that the Court instructed the jury 18) regarding the inference a jury may draw based 19) on a defendant's flight after the commission
 20) of a crime (See RT 213)

21) The Court indicated that it intended to instruct
 22) the jury pursuant to Caljic No. 252 (See RT
 23) Defense counsel objected, stating: "I don't think
 24) what happened was sufficient with flight." (See 25) RT 223) The Court overruled the objection and gave 26) the instruction. (See RT 273)

27)
 28) The trial court instructed the jury pursuant to

Ground 3 (Argument 2) Supporting facts Continued:

1) Celisic No. 252 as follows:

2) "The flight of a person immediately after the
3) commission of a crime, or after he is accused of a
4) crime, is not sufficient in itself to establish his guilt,
5) but is a fact which, if proved, may be considered by 6) you in the light of all other proved facts in deciding
7) whether a defendant is guilty or not guilty. The weight
8) to which this circumstance is entitled is a matter for 9) you to decide." (see RT 292)

10)
11) Petitioner claims that, assuming there was
12) substantial evidence to support the giving of a flight 13) instruction, the defense counsel erred by failing to 14) request the trial court modify the standard Celisic
15) No 252 instruction. Specifically, petitioner argues 16) that there is substantial evidence that ~~showed~~ showed 17) an innocent reason for petitioner's departure, because 18) his life had been threatened by Chris Knox and that,
19) therefore, the defense counsel should have requested 20) the trial court modify the pattern instruction, and 21) also instructed the jury it had to make a preliminary
22) factual finding regarding whether petitioner departed
23) the scene to avoid arrest before it could consider 24) whether his flight evidenced a consciousness of 25) guilt. Petitioner basis this argument on the 26) following trial court's testimony:

27)
28) Jose Castro (the alleged victim) testified for the

Ground 3 (Argument 2) Supporting Facts continued:

1) prosecution that: From June 2004 through September
 2) 2004, he lived with Rebecca and Christopher Knox
 3) in their two bedroom apartment (see RT 27-28) During 4) this time he had seen lots of arguments between
 5) Mr. Cunningham (petitioner) and Mr. Knox (see RT 39 (10-19);
 6) RT 40 (1-2)) Where as Chris Knox threatened to kill
 7) petitioner ever since Castro moved into the Knoxes
 8) apartment (see RT 40) The Knoxes apartment was
 9) right upstairs from petitioner's apartment (see RT 27).

10)
 11) Rebecca Knox (prosecution witness) testified
 12) that Chris Knox and petitioner had previous 13) arguments (see RT 80 (3-4)).

14)
 15) Nina Talvera (prosecution witness) testified
 16) that Chris Knox yell at petitioner that he would
 17) kill petitioner if he returned. (see RT 70)

18)
 19) Petitioner testified that he was afraid of
 20) Chris Knox because of the bat and Chris threats
 21) (see RT 223) While petitioner stated on cross-
 22) examination that he did not leave to avoid arrest
 23) (see RT 257 (6-22), there was also substantial evidence
 24) demonstrating that petitioner left for innocent
 25) ~~reasons~~ (safety) reasons and had nothing to do
 26) with consciousness of guilt inference permitted
 27) to the charged offenses. The jury could have also 28) inferred from the evidence that the petitioner left

Ground 3 (Argument 2) Supporting facts continued:

1) to "cool down" (see RT 219), just as he left the
2) Knoxes apartment, and should be encouraged by the
3) law, and certainly carried with it no consciousness
4) of guilt.

5)
6) Also, the 911 tape, which was played for the jury,
7) and for which they had a transcript (see RT 76; 77),
8) also revealed Chris Knox threatened to shoot petitioner
9) in the face ["I'm going to shoot you in your face,
10) you come up here again."] (see CT 9)

12) In addition, even though petitioner admitted
13) that while he was being pursued by the police, he 14) threw the shotgun out the window of his car
15) (see RT 227 (20-21)). Thus, there was clearly evidence 16) from which the jury could reasonably infer that 17) petitioner's flight did not reflect a consciousness 18) of guilt because petitioner stated: he threw the 19) shotgun out of the window from fear of being shot
20) by the police (see RT 227 (23-25) and immediately
21) pulled over and parked (see RT 226 (26-28))

23) Thus, for each of these foregoing reasons the
24) defense counsel should have requested the trial
25) court instruct the jury to make a fact finding 26) before considering flight as consciousness of guilt.
27) When ever this preliminary fact is in question,
28) the defendant has a right to an instruction

Ground 3 (Appellant 2) Supporting facts Continued:

- 1) requiring the jury to determine whether the
- 2) preliminary fact necessary to establish the relevance
- 3) of the evidence exists and to disregard the
- 4) evidence unless the jury finds that the preliminary
- 5) fact does exist.

- 6)
- 7) Analytically, flight is an admission by conduct
- 8) its probative value as circumstantial evidence
- 9) of guilt depends upon the degree of confidence
- 10) with which four inferences can be drawn: (1) from
- 11) ~~flight to consciousness of guilt~~ the defendant's behavior
- 12) to flight; (2) from flight to consciousness of
- 13) guilt; (3) from consciousness of guilt to consciousness
- 14) of guilt concerning the crime charged; and (4) from
- 15) consciousness of guilt concerning the crime charged
- 16) to actual guilt of the crime charged.

- 17)
- 18) Wherefore, if the jury is permitted to make a
- 19) consciousness of guilt without making the requisite
- 20) preliminary factual findings, the prosecution's burden
- 21) is lessened and there is a danger of jury
- 22) reliance upon an irrational or unjustified inference
- 23) in violation of the petitioner Sixth and Fourteenth
- 24) Amendment rights.

- 25)
- 26) In this case, the defense counsel should have
- 27) requested the trial court modify Caljic 2.52 instruction
- 28) to read:

Ground 3 (Argument 2) Supporting facts Continued:

1) "Whether or not evidence of flight shows a consciousness
2) of guilt, and the significance to be attached to
3) such circumstance, are matters for your determination".

4)

5) Therefore, petitioner argues that due to his defense
6) counsel's failure to request the trial court modify
7) Caljic 2.52, was an instructional error of constitutional
8) dimension in that it permitted the jury to infer
9) guilt if it found that petitioner fled, violated
10) petitioner's right to trial by jury. The permissible
11) inference of the instruction improperly undermined
12) petitioner's presumption of innocence. Petitioner
13) leaving the scene where his life had been threatened 14) by a yelling man armed with a baseball bat and 15) who threatened to shoot petitioner in the face, 16) did not support an inference of guilt. Moreover, 17) the instruction directed the jury's attention to 18) flight. Even though the instruction was permissive,
19) the instruction suggested that flight was one type
20) of evidence of guilt that could "establish guilt."

22) Based on the foregoing, the petitioner was 23) prejudiced by the defense counsel's failure to 24) request the trial court modify the statutory flight
25) instruction, and thus petitioner's conviction
26) on all counts should be reversed.

1 of 11

Ground 3 (Argument 3)

- 1) Petitioner was deprived of his Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and
- 2) Fourteenth Amendment rights when his defense counsel
- 3) erred in failing to file a motion to suppress evidence,
- 4) two guns, that was obtained at petitioner's residence
- 5) as a result of a warrantless search and seizure.

6) Supporting facts:

- 8) Petitioner contends that he was denied his Constitutional
- 9) right to effective assistance of counsel and deprived of due
- 10) process of the law when his court appointed defense counsel
- 11) was ineffective for failing to file a motion to suppress two guns
- 12) that the prosecution presented during trial, that was obtained
- 13) at petitioner's ~~the~~ residence as a result of a warrantless search
- 14) and seizure.

- 15)
- 16) Petitioner asserts that the prosecution presented these
- 17) two guns at petitioner's trial (See RT 183-184)

- 18)
- 19) Petitioner claims that the defense counsel was
- 20) ineffective for failing to file a motion to suppress the
- 21) prosecution from presenting these two guns, which were
- 22) obtained on an illegal search and seizure. Petitioner bases
- 23) this claim on the following facts:

- 24) 1) Petitioner notes that Debra Teich is the manager
- 25) of the apartment complex where he lived. (See RT 182). Petitioner
- 26) was arrested on September 12, 2004 (See CT01 and CT02)
- 27) Additionally, Teich testified that she had to re-rent the
- 28) apartment, went through the eviction process and got a

20f11

Ground 3 (Argument 3) Supporting Facts Continued:

- 1.) lockout order. Teich, testified that on October 7, 2004 approximately
- 2.) 3 weeks later she had to move petitioner's items and found two
- 3.) shotguns in the closet (See RT 183) Teich called the police
- 4.) (See RT 183) the two guns were confiscated. The prosecution
- 5.) then presented these two guns at petitioner's trial (RT 183-184)

- 6.)
- 7.) Petitioner next claims that these two guns were obtained
- 8.) on an illegal search and seizure on the grounds that
- 9.) Teich, the manager of the apartment complex could never
- 10.) had evicted the petitioner and received a lockout order
- 11.) on or about October 7, 2004, approximately a little over 3
- 12.) weeks after petitioner was arrested. Petitioner basis this claim
- 13.) on the following facts:

- 14.) 1.) Petitioner was arrested on September 12, 2004. (See CT 01; CT02)
- 15.) and petitioner had previously paid his rent for the month of
- 16.) September.

- 17.) 2.) According to Teich, the apartment manager, petitioner
- 18.) was not being evicted on September 12, 2004 (See RT 185)

- 19.) 3.) Being that if the petitioner was going to be
- 20.) evicted on or after September 12, 2004, Teich, the manager
- 21.) was required by law to give the petitioner a 30 day eviction
- 22.) notice, until on or after October 12, 2004.

- 23.) 4.) Even assumming that petitioner did not pay his rent
- 24.) for the month of September, according to Teich the manager, he
- 25.) was not being evicted as of Sep. 12, 2004. Thus, the manager

Ground 3 (Argument 3) Supporting Facts Continued:

- 1) was required to give the petitioner by law a 3 day notice to pay
- 2) or quit and if petitioner had not yet paid within the 3 days
- 3) Teich, the manager was required to give the petitioner a
- 4) 30 day eviction notice, until on or after October 12, 2004.
- 5) 5) The same event would have occurred if petitioner:
- 6) was required to pay rent for the month of October. Teich,
- 7) the manager was required to give a 3 day notice to pay or quit.
- 8) If petitioner never paid within the 3 days, Teich, the manager
- 9) was required to give the petitioner a 30 day eviction notice
- 10) and the petitioner was not to be evicted, until on or before
- 11) November 3, 2004.
- 12) 6) In addition, petitioner paid first and last months
- 13) rent (which all apartments required) and thus, if all else
- 14) failed from the day petitioner was arrested on September
- 15) 12, 2004, he at the minimum of minimums had at least
- 16) until October 12, 2004 before he could be evicted.

17) Therefore, based on each of these foregoing reasons

18) Teich, the apartment manager could never by law evict the

19) petitioner and get a lock out order on or before October

20) 7, 2004, as she once testified to. (See RT 183)

21) Therefore, petitioner argues that since Teich, the

22) apartment manager was illegally searching and seizing the

23) petitioner's property when she illegally found these two guns

Ground 3 (Argument 3) Supporting facts Continued:

- 1) and even though she called the police, and the police
- 2) came and confiscated these two guns, these two guns were
- 3) obtained as a result of an illegal ~~sear~~ warrantless search and seizure.
- 4)

- 5) Petitioner next argues that his defense counsel was
- 6) ineffective for failing to file a motion to suppress these two
- 7) guns that the prosecution presented during trial, that was
- 8) obtained on an illegal search and seizure. Moreover, petitioner
- 9) was prejudiced by the defense counsel's complete failure to file
- 10) a motion to suppress these two guns because he was deprived
- 11) of his ~~4~~ Fourth Amendment right to the United States Constitution
- 12)

- 13) Moreover, common sense suggests that when bringing these two
- 14) additional gun into trial and in the presence of the jury not only
- 15) conveyed a wrongful prejudicial impression, but it displayed a
- 16) highly prejudicial inference of guilt on the petitioner in the mind
- 17) of any reasonable trier of fact of the jury. In addition, this
- 18) impression of greater guilt translated into a harsher sentence and
- 19) excessive punishment which translates to cruel and unusual
- 20) punishment that violates petitioner's Eighth Amendment right.
- 21)

- 22) Furthermore, what the petitioner's defense counsel was thinking
- 23) was absolutely far-a-field from a defense attorney acting
- 24) diligently as a conscientious advocate of his defendant /
- 25) Client's interest. Because this failure to file a motion ~~to~~

Ground 3 (Argument 3) Supporting Facts Continued:

- 1) to suppress these two guns was not a strategic decision that reason
- 2) or common sense would justify and petitioner asserts that his
- 3) defense counsel's advocacy fell far short of any reasonable
- 4) standard for the provision of effective assistance of counsel.
- 5) There is also more than a reasonable probability that
- 6) absent the defense counsel's unprofessional errors, the
- 7) result of the proceeding would have been the same. The
- 8) defense counsel's failure to file a motion to suppress this
- 9) evidence that was obtained on an illegal search and seizure
- 10) was highly prejudicial and can never be viewed as a sound
- 11) strategic trial strategy, or as a harmless error. Certainly
- 12) this type of mistake or complete incompetence by his
- 13) defense counsel can not be condoned as being in any-
- 14) way adequate in meeting the standard of legal
- 15) professional assistance as envisioned by the Sixth
- 16) Amendment to the United States Constitution. Here
- 17) the defense counsel has failed to use every fundamental
- 18) approach in assisting the petitioner in obtaining a fair
- 19) and meaningful trial and making sure that the petitioner's
- 20) Constitutional rights are not violated, and thus, since
- 21) the defense counsel failed to protect the petitioner's Fourth
- 22) Amendment to the United States Constitution and the
- 23) Federal Constitution when he failed to object to the prosecution
- 24) presenting these two guns at petitioner's trial that was obtained on an
- 25) illegal search and seizure, the petitioner's conviction should be reversed.

Ground 3 (Argument 4)

1) Petitioner was deprived of his Fifth, Sixth and
 2) Fourteenth Amendment rights when his defense counsel
 3) committed a prejudicial error by failing to object to the
 4) trial court instructing the jury on Caljic 17.01.

5)
 6) Petitioner contends that he was denied his Constitutional
 7) right to effective assistance of counsel and deprived of due
 8) process of the law when his defense counsel was ineffective
 9) and committed a prejudicial/reversible error by 10) failing to object, and thus, allowed the trial court to 11) instruct the jury on Caljic 17.01 "Verdict may be based 12) on a number of unlawful acts." for Count 2.

 14) Petitioner notes that on or about September 12, 2004, he 15) was charged with an assault upon Jose Castro with a
 16) firearm, in violation of Penal Code Section 245(a)(2) (See CT01
 17) and CT02).

18)
 19) Petitioner asserts that he went to trial and after 20) all the evidence was presented, both the defense and the 21) prosecution rested (RT 265) The trial court then
 22) instructed the jury on several jury instructions (RT 284-301)
 23) It wasn't until after both the prosecution and defense
 24) presented their closing arguments, that the trial court
 25) ~~Refused~~ decided to give Caljic 17.01, defense counsel

1) and prosecution agreed (RT 322; 323)

2) Petitioner claims that he was denied his Constitutional
 3) rights to know the charges against him, denied his Constitutional
 4) rights to a fair trial and deprived of due process of the 5) law when the defense counsel prejudicially erred in
 6) failing to object to the trial court prejudicially instructing
 7) the jury on Caljic 17.01 "Verdict may be based on one of a
 8) number of unlawful acts. Petitioner basis this claim on the
 9) following facts: The trial court stated:

10) The Court "And just for the record, there was one additional 11) instruction that I just discussed with the attorney's that the 12) Court will give. It is Caljic 17.01, and both attorney's have 13) agreed to it."

14) "The defendant is accused of having committed the crime
 15) of Assault with a firearm in Count 2. The prosecution has 16) introduced evidence for the purpose of showing that there is 17) more than one act which a conviction on Count 2 may be 18) based. Defendant maybe found guilty if the proof shows
 19) beyond a reasonable doubt that he committed anyone or more 20) of the acts. However, in order to return a verdict of guilty to 21) Count 2, all 12 jurors must agree that he committed the same act.
 22) It is not necessary that the particular act agreed upon be
 23) stated in your verdict." (See RT 322 (19-28)).

24) "Now let me explain what that means. You've heard
 25) evidence of certain events that occurred inside the apartment.

Ground 3 (Argument 4) Supporting facts continued:

- 1) You've also heard evidence, I believe, of the defendant
- 2) holding the gun in a certain manner while he was downstairs,
- 3) I think, in the parking lot. The prosecution has argued that
- 4) either one of the events could support a conviction for
- 5) Count 2. What ~~this means~~ this instruction means is that
- 6) all 12 of you just agree on which event or act occurred
- 7) before you can find the defendant guilty." (RT 323 (1-9)).
- 8) "If for example, 6 jurors feels that what happened
- 9) in the apartment is sufficient for a guilty of Count 2,
- 10) but not what happened downstairs, and the other 6 think
- 11) downstairs but not what happened up in the apartment, you
- 12) can't go 6 plus 6 to make 12. All 12 of you have to agree
- 13) that the defendant committed the same act in order to
- 14) find him guilty of Count 2. You can't go 6 and 6 or 8 and 4
- 15) (See RT 323 (10-16)).

- 16)
- 17) Petitioner proclaims that these are the judge's
- 18) statements to Catjic 17.01. However, petitioner basis this
- 19) argument on the following facts:

- 20) Petitioner makes notice that he was only charged
- 21) with one Count of assault upon Jose Castro with a firearm,
- 22) in violation of Pen C § 245(a)(2). (See CT 01 and CT 02).

- 23)
- 24) Petitioner claims that he was prejudicially denied
- 25) his Constitutional rights to know the charges against

Ground 3 (Argument 4) Supporting facts continued:

- 1) him, prejudicially denied his Constitutional right to
- 2) confront and cross-examine the witness against him
- 3) and prejudicially deprived of due process of the law
- 4) when the defense counsel was ineffective and committed
- 5) a prejudicial error by failing to object to the trial
- 6) court instructing the jury on Calgic 17.01
- 7)

8) Petitioner asserts that he exercised his Constitutional

9) rights to a fair and impartial jury trial and after all

10) the evidence was presented, both the defense and the

11) prosecution rested their case (RT 265). The trial court

12) then instructed the jury on several jury instructions:

13) (RT 284-301) It wasn't until after both the prosecution

14) and defense presented their closing arguments, the trial

15) court decided to give Calgic 17.01 jury instruction (RT 322; 323).

16)

17) However, since the defense counsel committed a

18) prejudicial error by allowing the trial court instruct the

19) jury on Calgic 17.01, gave the jury an alternate theory

20) from which the petitioner could be found 'guilty' of for

21) Count 2 Assault with a firearm, Pen C § 245(a)(2). The

22) alternate theory was based on evidence the prosecution

23) presented during trial, that the petitioner pointed the

24) gun while down in the parking lot. Petitioner offers

25) the following facts light most favorable to the

Ground 3 (Argument 4) Supporting facts continued:

1) prosecution's evidence:

2)

3) Nina Talvera, testified that she lived in
4) Bella Vista apartments (RT 168) and awoke on the
5) night of Sep. 12, 2004, to lots of yelling (RT 169).

6) Talvera stated she lived on the ground level and
7) was about 20 feet from the altercation (RT 170 (1-7)).

8) Talvera next gave the following testimony:

9) "I saw Mr Cunningham coming downstairs with
10) something in his hand, and Chris was yelling at him, 11) and they were yelling at each other. And, then, when 12) Mr. Cunningham was on the ground, he had 13) something at his side. I couldn't tell whether it was 14) a bat. It looks like a bat from where I was. And he-
15) and then Chris, Mr. Knox, told him that he if he 16) came up there again, he would kill him. And then 17) Chris -- or sorry -- Mr. Cunningham yelled back at 18) him, and he raised the -- what I thought was a bat --
19) in the air (See RT 170 (9-17)).

21) Talvera told the police that it could have been a
22) bat or a gun (RT 170 (18-21)). Talvera also stated that
23) Cunningham was yelling back at (Christopher Knox)
24) same type of things (See RT 172 (18-22)). (Deducted from 25) the prosecution evidence apparently, since Chris Knox

Ground 3 (Argument 4) Supporting facts continued:

- 1) told petitioner that he would kill him, petitioner was
- 2) also telling Christopher Knox that he would kill
- 3) him). While, Talvera stated Castro was also
- 4) standing and yelling from the top of the stairs (RT 173).
- 5) Castro testified that he was in the room the entire
- 6) time (RT 35 (17-25)).

- 7)
- 8) Additionally, the prosecution asked Talvera the
- 9) following questions:

- 10) By Mr. Link: (Prosecutor) Q: When Mr. Knox was yelling
- 11) down into the parking lot, was the defendant yelling
- 12) back"?

- 13) Talvera (the witness): A. "yes"

- 14) Mr. Link: (prosecutor) Q. At some point, you said he
- 15) pointed whatever it was a bat or a shotgun, towards
- 16) Mr. Knox"?

- 17) Talvera (the witness): A. "Up that way"

- 18) Talvera (the witness): A. "Up in that direction"

- 19) (See RT 174 (19-26)).

- 20)
- 21) In addition, the prosecution made the following
- 22) statements to the jury during closing arguments:

- 23) "Thats as far as just being down in the parking
- 24) lot and pointing it upwards and saying, "I'm going
- 25) to F-ing Kill you." Thats an assault with a deadly

Ground 3 (Argument 4) Supporting Facts Continued:

1) Weapon (See RT 308 (1-2))

2) "We've got assaults with a deadly weapon all over

3) the place." (See RT 308 (3-4)).

4)

5) Thus, presented from the prosecution's perspective,

6) and if the jury believed Talvera Testimony, there would

7) be reasonable substantial evidence presented that, while

8) petitioner was down in the parking lot, he pointed the

9) gun towards Christopher Knox on the balcony and even

10) though Chris Knox and petitioner was yelling back and

11) fourth, they both apparently threatened to kill each

12) other. (Which would be consistent with a finding of

13) an assault upon Chris Knox, in violation of Pen C§

14) 245 (a) (2).

15) Also not to go unnoticed, while the trial court

16) stated "the victim in this case is Castro, not Knox"

17) (RT 179 (18-19)), and "the People aren't going to be allowed

18) to argue that he's a victim of any of these crimes"

19) (RT 179 (21-22)) was an erroneously given statement and

20) a prejudicial error on the part of the trial court for

21) instructing the jury on Caljic 17.01 (See RT 322)

22) However, it was also a prejudicial error on the

23) part of the defense counsel for failing to object, and

24) thus, allowing the trial court to instruct the jury on

25) Caljic 17.01 (See RT 322) and explaining to the jury

Ground 3 (Argument 4) Supporting facts continued:

- 1) that they could find the petitioner 'guilty' of an
- 2) alternate theory as to Count 2 (See RT 323), (if the
- 3) evidence shows that petitioner pointed the gun and was
- 4) yelling threats at Christopher Knox (RT 174 (19-26)), while
- 5) down in the parking lot, advertently or inadvertently
- 6) prejudicially made Christopher Knox an alleged victim,
- 7) as to petitioner's Count 2 Assault with a firearm, in
- 8) violation of Pen C § 245(a)(2).

- 9)
- 10) Petitioner asserts that the jury would have had
- 11) to reject Castro's alleged assault and more likely
- 12) than not accepted the alternate assault, while down
- 13) in the parking lot because as Castro testified, that
- 14) on September 12, 2004, the day this incident occurred
- 15) he was taking medication (RT 42), he was feeling
- 16) confused (RT 42-43 (1-8)) his memory was a little
- 17) fuzzy and has a mental disorder. (RT 48 (15-22)).
- 18) Castro testified, they call him 5150 (RT 49), he hears
- 19) things, noise, a lot of yelling and him and "most
- 20) importantly," People comes to kill him (RT 50 (8-10)),
- 21) similar to the events that occurred in the apartment
- 22) (RT 50 (13-14)). Moreover, the jury would have had
- 23) to reject Castro's testimony because the jury found
- 24) petitioner 'not guilty' on Count 1 Residential
- 25) Burglary (See RT 336), so this was a close case.

Ground 3 (Argument 4) Supporting facts continued:

1) and since Castro testified that petitioner busted/threw
 2) in the door (RT 30-31), had a short rifle (RT 31-32), put
 3) his hand on the trigger (RT 32), put the gun to Castro's
 4) throat (RT 32) and stated, I'll come back and kill you
 5) all (RT 33 (1-19)). (All of which would have supported a
 6) guilty finding on Count 1 Residential Burglary).

7)
 8) Therefore, for each of these foregoing reasons, petitioner
 9) argues that since the defense counsel was ineffective
 10) and committed a prejudicial/reversible error by allowing 11) the trial court to instruct the jury on Caljic 17.01
 12) (See RT 322-323), after both the defense and the 13) prosecution rested their case (RT 265) prejudicially
 14) denied him of his Constitutional rights to a fair trial 15) and due process of the law because petitioner was 16) never advised of the charges against him (that Chris
 17) Knox was an alleged victim to Count 2 Assault with 18) a firearm Pen C § 245 (a)(2). Wherefore, at the very 19) least, there was no time or opportunity to craft a
 20) defense, no opportunity to consult with legal counsel 21) for the purpose of participating in his own defense, or 22) ~~and thus~~, no opportunity to speak in his own defense,
 23) and thus, was taken by surprise by not only evidence
 24) offered at trial, but also by an erroneously given
 25) jury instruction Caljic 17.01, that petitioner's defense

Ground 3 (Argument 4) Supporting facts continued:

- 1) counsel prejudicially allowed the trial court to
- 2) give. Petitioner also argues that most importantly,
- 3) since the defense counsel failed to object to the
- 4) trial court instructing the jury on Caljic 17.01,
- 5) prejudicially made Chris Knox an alleged victim, and
- 6) prejudicially denied petitioner of his Constitutional
- 7) rights to a fair trial, prejudicially denied petitioner
- 8) his Constitutional rights to confront and cross-
- 9) examine the witness against him and prejudicially
- 10) deprived the petitioner of due process of the law
- 11)
- 12) because "Christopher Knox" was never called
- 13) as
- 14) as a witness during trial (See RT 180(4-6)),
- 15)
- 16) and thus, reversal is highly, highly
- 17)
- 18) required!!!
- 19)
- 20)
- 21)
- 22)
- 23)
- 24)
- 25)

Ground 3 (Supporting facts Continued:) (Closing)

1) Petitioner hereby argues that each of the several
2) foregoing instances and separate arguments constitutes
3) ineffective assistance of counsel. Each alone 4) significantly prejudiced against his ability to
5) defend himself against the charges, and each alone
6) sufficiently deprived him of his Fifth, Sixth and
7) Fourteenth Amendment rights. Petitioner further ~~argues~~
8) contends that cumulatively, there is more than 9) substantial and sufficient support to indicate that
10) petitioner did not have the benefit of effective 11) assistance of counsel as envisioned by the Sixth and 12) Fourteenth Amendments. Wherefore the compounded
13) defects in the defense counsel's performance so
14) severely prejudiced against any reasonable 15) expectation of the petitioner's ability to defend 16) against the charges, and so hopelessly lessly 17) damaged his opportunity to prevail in these 18) proceedings. Therefore, for these many and various 19) reasons, justice requires at the minimum of minimums 20) the verdict be put aside in this matter and the 21) petitioner be granted a new trial.

Did you raise GROUND ONE in the California Supreme Court?

☒ Yes ☐ No.

If yes, answer the following:

- (1) Nature of proceeding (i.e., petition for review, habeas petition): Petition for Review
- (2) Case number or citation: D046320
- (3) Result (attach a copy of the court's opinion or order if available): Review denied

Ground 4

1) The trial court erred by denying petitioner's request
 2) to cross-examine Rebecca Knox regarding her prior domestic
 3) violence accusations against her husband, Christopher
 4) Knox, which she later recanted, and thereby violated
 5) petitioner's State and Federal Constitutional rights
 6) to present a defense and to cross-examine witnesses
 7) against him.

8)

9) Supporting facts:

10) Rebecca Knox was one of the principal prosecution
 11) witnesses. Her credibility was crucial to the prosecution's
 12) case. The evidence presented a classic credibility
 13) contest between Rebecca Knox and Castro, on the one
 14) hand, and petitioner, on the other hand. Petitioner sought 15) to introduce evidence that Rebecca made accusations of 16) domestic violence against her husband, Chris Knox and
 17) then withdrew the accusations (RT 12) The trial court
 18) erred by excluding the evidence (RT 13)

19) The trial court's error in excluding the evidence 20) violated petitioner's federal constitutional rights to 21) present a defense and to confront and cross-examine 22) the witnesses against him.

23) The constitutional guarantee of "a meaningful
 24) opportunity to present a defense is grounded in the due 25) process clause of the Fourteenth Amendment and the

- 1) Compulsory process or confrontation clauses of the
- 2) Sixth Amendment. This right includes the right to impeach
- 3) witnesses at trial.
- 4) The Sixth Amendment right of confrontation
- 5) imposes limitations on the trial court's ability to restrict
- 6) the scope of cross-examination of prosecution witnesses.
- 7) The law is well established that a defendant has a
- 8) right under the Sixth Amendment Confrontation Clause
- 9) to admit evidence showing a motive to make false
- 10) accusations.
- 11) The Confrontation Clause guarantees the defendant
- 12) in a criminal prosecution the right of cross-examination,
- 13) which includes exploration of bias and motive to accuse
- 14) falsely. A defendant's right to present his theory is a
- 15) fundamental right, and all of his pertinent evidence
- 16) should be considered by the trier of fact. While the
- 17) admission of evidence pursuant to section 352 is
- 18) within the discretion of the trial court, "the exercise of
- 19) such discretion 'should favor the petitioner in cases of doubt'."
- 20) The credibility of a witness is, of course, always in
- 21) issue. Relevant evidence that supports or attacks credibility
- 22) is proper. More specifically, a witness character for
- 23) honesty or veracity or their opposites is a factor the
- 24) jury may consider in determining credibility.
- 25) Petitioner had evidence of Rebecca Knox's

1) dishonesty or untruthfulness in making criminal
 2) accusations. Either she had been untruthful in making
 3) domestic violence accusations against her husband, or she
 4) had been less than truthful in withdrawing them. The fact
 5) that the accusations concerned domestic violence, a
 6) situation in which false or recanting accusations occur
 7) with some frequency, did not remove the matter from
 8) the province of the jury, but rather was another factor
 9) for the jury to consider in determining the weight of the 10) evidence on Rebecca Knox's credibility.

11) Thus, the California Evidence Code now more closely
 12) parallels the Federal Rules of Evidence, which expressly 13) permits cross-examination about untruthful acts. The 14) California Supreme Court also approved admissions
 15) of specific instances of conduct of a witness to impeach
 16) credibility.

17) Thus, acts of moral turpitude are admissible for 18) impeachment purposes, whether or not those acts resulted 19) in a conviction of any type.

20) Petitioner properly sought to impeach Rebecca Knox with 21) her conduct evidencing untruthfulness in the specific
 22) context of making criminal accusations (RT 12) Counsel
 23) explained:

24) "Mr. Gulley: Yes Your Honor. Rebecca Knox will be 25) testifying. Ms. Knox previously filed a report accusing Pg 3 of 6

- 1) her husband of a domestic violence situation. She then
- 2) recanted the statements after her husband was
- 3) arrested. Charges were dropped against him. I think
- 4) this goes toward her credibility. Unfortunately, I
- 5) left the file in my office, I would like to use that to
- 6) impeach her in terms of her credibility today and
- 7) what she said to the police at the time. (RT 12)
- 8)
- 9) The court excluded the evidence, citing "the time it
- 10) will take to bring it in," and "the trial within a trial that it
- 11) will most certainly would require." (RT 13) The ruling was
- 12) error. First, the cross-examination was entirely proper.
- 13) Second, as the court acknowledged the evidence was
- 14) relevant. (RT 13) It was not only relevant to Rebecca Knox's
- 15) credibility, but also Chris Knox's reputation for violence
- 16) Third, the court's justification for excluding the evidence
- 17) was meritless. It would have taken very little time to
- 18) question Rebecca Knox about her earlier accusations and
- 19) recanting.
- 20) The general rule is that this type of error requires
- 21) reversal if it can be said a result more favorable to
- 22) petitioner would have been obtained absent the error.
- 23) But because the trial court's exclusion of the above
- 24) evidence denied petitioner his right of confrontation, the
- 25) judgement of guilt should be reversed unless the error

1) was harmless beyond a reasonable doubt. Whether
 2) such an error is harmless in a particular case depends
 3) upon a host of factors, all readily accessible to reviewing
 4) courts. These factors include the importance of the witness'
 5) testimony in the prosecution's case, whether the testimony
 6) was cumulative, the presence or absence of evidence corroborating
 7) or contradicting the testimony of the witness on material
 8) points, the extent of cross-examination otherwise permitted,
 9) and, of course, the overall strength of the prosecution's case.
 10) The trial court's exclusion of impeachment evidence
 11) against Rebecca Knox was not harmless beyond a 12) reasonable doubt. The error was prejudicial, furthermore,
 13) even under the more likely than not standard of review
 14) applicable solely to errors of state law. This was a
 15) close case. First, the jury acquitted petitioner on Count 1.
 16) Second, resolution turned on the credibility of witnesses
 17) and this error tended to bolster a crucial
 18) prosecution witness. Third, conflicting inferences could 19) have been drawn from evidence.
 20) Only two percipient witnesses to the events in 21) the Knoxes' apartment testified for the prosecution:
 22) Rebecca Knox and Castro. The jury easily could 23) have rejected Castro's testimony. He explained that 24) all the times were "fuzzy" because of his medication 25) (RT 48) He suffered from a mental disorder, which

- 1) caused him to hear things, hears yelling and believed
- 2) people were coming to Kill him (RT 48; RT 56)
- 3) Castro testified that his mental disorder caused
- 4) him to believe events just like the ones he described
- 5) with petitioner (RT 50) Thus, it was Rebecca Knox's
- 6) testimony that carried the day for the prosecution.
- 7) Still, the record shows the jury did not entirely
- 8) believe Rebecca Knox's testimony completely even without
- 9) the impeaching evidence. The jury acquitted petitioner
- 10) of Count 1
- 11) The case pitted the petitioner's credibility against
- 12) Rebecca Knox's credibility. The rule is that any
- 13) substantial error that tends to bolster or corroborate
- 14) the prosecution's case must be deemed prejudicial
- 15) on review.
- 16) Based on the foregoing, the exclusion of the
- 17) defense impeachment evidence was prejudicial and
- 18) the conviction should be reversed.

- 1) The trial court erred in giving Caljic Number 2.52,
- 2) the Statutory flight instruction, over defense objection
- 3) thereby violating petitioner's due process rights.
- 4) In the alternative the pattern instruction required
- 5) modification and preliminary fact-finding in this case.

7) Supporting facts:

- 8) It was error to instruct, over defense objection,
- 9) with Caljic number 2.52. Substantial evidence
- 10) demonstrated that petitioner's departure had nothing to
- 11) do with a consciousness of guilt to the charged offenses.
- 12) Petitioner's life had been threatened by Chris Knox, who
- 13) was armed with a baseball bat. The 911 tape also revealed
- 14) that Rebecca Knox threatened to shoot petitioner in the face.
- 15) (CT p. 9 ["I'm gonna shoot you in your face, you come up
- 16) here again"]. The 911 tape, which was played to the jury,
- 17) and for which they also had a transcript (RT 76-77).

- 18) Thus, petitioner's departure did not support the
- 19) consciousness of guilt inference permitted by the instruction.
- 20) The instruction impermissibly diluted the prosecution's
- 21) burden of proving the truth of the charges beyond a
- 22) reasonable doubt, violated due process, and requires reversal
- 23) of petitioner's conviction.

24)

- 25) Defense counsel objected to the court's instructing

- 1) with Caljic No 2.52. Counsel argued, "I don't think what
- 2) happened was sufficient with flight." (RT 273) The court
- 3) overruled the objection and gave the instruction (RT 273)
- 4) "Flight" exists where there is evidence that the
- 5) petitioner "departed the crime scene under circumstances
- 6) suggesting that his movement was motivated by a
- 7) consciousness of guilt." Thus, the flight instruction should
- 8) be given only where there is evidence of actual flight,
- 9) which may be properly relied upon as tending to show guilt.
- 10) Where there is an innocent explanation for a
- 11) defendant's leaving, the flight instruction is improper.
- 12) Here, petitioner also immediately submitted to law
- 13) enforcement authority and cooperated fully when he
- 14) was stopped (RT 159; RT 164). Evidence supported an
- 15) inference that petitioner left for several reasons, including
- 16) that his life was being threatened. Where, as here, there
- 17) was no evidence of actual flight, giving of Caljic No.
- 18) 2.52 was error. There simply was no substantial
- 19) evidence to support each of the four inferences prerequisite
- 20) to giving the flight instruction.

- 21)
- 22) Even if some flight instruction was appropriate,
- 23) the pattern instruction required modification in this
- 24) case. Here, because substantial evidence showed an
- 25) innocent reason for petitioner's departure, the court

- 1) Should have modified the pattern instruction, and also
- 2) instructed the jury it had to make preliminary factual
- 3) findings before it could infer any consciousness of guilt
- 4) from petitioner's departure. When there is evidence that
- 5) suggests a reason for flight other than consciousness
- 6) of guilt, then the court should instruct the jury more
- 7) specifically that whether or not the evidence shows a
- 8) consciousness of guilt, and what significance to attach
- 9) to it, are questions of fact the jury must determine.
- 10) Additionally, the jury should have been instructed
- 11) to make preliminary fact-finding before considering flight
- 12) as consciousness of guilt. In order to indicate a
- 13) consciousness of guilt, petitioner's reason for leaving had
- 14) to have been to avoid observation or arrest. Whenever this
- 15) preliminary fact is in question, the petitioner had a
- 16) right to an instruction requiring the jury to determine
- 17) whether the preliminary fact necessary to establish the
- 18) relevance of the evidence exists and to disregard the
- 19) evidence unless the jury finds that the preliminary
- 20) fact does exist.
- 21) If the jury is permitted to find a consciousness
- 22) of guilt without making the requisite preliminary
- 23) factual findings, the prosecution's burden is lessened
- 24) and there is danger of jury reliance upon an irrational
- 25) or unjustified inference in violation of the petitioner's

- 1) Sixth and Fourteenth Amendment rights. Here, a
- 2) preliminary fact-finding was very important because
- 3) the jury received evidence petitioner's life had been
- 4) threatened by both Chris and Rebecca Knox. While,
- 5) petitioner stated on cross-examination that he left to
- 6) avoid arrest (RT 207-208), there also was substantial,
- 7) unrefuted evidence showing he left for innocent (safety)
- 8) reasons. Moreover, to the extent the jury could have
- 9) inferred from the evidence that petitioner left to "cool
- 10) down" (RT 219), just as he left the Knoxes' apartment,
- 11) then his departure was innocent, and indeed should
- 12) be encouraged by the law, and certainly carried with it
- 13) no consciousness of guilt.

- 14)
- 15) The instructional error was of constitutional
- 16) dimension in that it permitted the jury to infer guilt
- 17) if it found that petitioner fled, thereby lessening the
- 18) prosecution's burden and violating petitioner's rights to
- 19) trial by jury and due process. Therefore, the ~~stipulation~~
- 20) standard of review is whether the error was harmless
- 21) beyond a reasonable doubt. "[B]efore a federal
- 22) constitutional error can be harmless, the [reviewing]
- 23) court must be able to declare a belief that it was
- 24) harmless beyond a reasonable doubt. Because the
- 25) instructional error impacted constitutional right, the

- 1) Proper standard, however, is Chapman.
- 2) Under any standard of review, petitioner was
- 3) prejudiced by the statutory flight instruction. The permissible
- 4) inference of the instruction improperly undermined
- 5) petitioner's presumption of innocence. Petitioner's leaving
- 6) the scene where his life had been threatened by a
- 7) yelling man armed with a baseball bat, and a yelling
- 8) woman who threatened to shoot petitioner in the face,
- 9) did not support an inference of guilt. Moreover, the
- 10) instruction directed the jury's attention to flight. Even
- 11) though the instruction was permissive, the instruction
- 12) suggested that flight was one type of evidence of
- 13) guilt that could "establish guilt" on all petitioner's
- 14) alleged charges.
- 15) Based on the foregoing, petitioner's conviction on all
- 16) counts should be reversed.

(c) GROUND Six (See Attached Ground 6)

Supporting FACTS: (See Attached)

Did you raise GROUND THREE in the California Supreme Court?

☒ Yes ☐ No.

If yes, answer the following:

- (1) Nature of proceeding (i.e., petition for review, habeas petition): Petition for Review
- (2) Case number or citation: D046320
- (3) Result (attach a copy of the court's opinion or order if available): Review denied

1086

Ground 6

1) The Court erred by denying the defense request to
2) instruct with Caljic Number 12.50 when the evidence
3) warranted such instruction, and the failure to instruct
4) impermissibly reduced the prosecution's burden of proof
5) and violated petitioner's due process and trial rights.

6)
7) Supporting facts:

8) The defense requested the court to instruct the jury
9) with Caljic Number 12.50 (RT 279), but the court declined
10) the request and thereby committed reversible error. (See
11) RT 280)

12) Petitioner presented evidence that he possessed the 13) short barreled shotgun for self-defense in three situations.
14) He had been attacked six month before the charged offenses 15) (RT 222); there was a lot of gang activity in his 16) neighborhood (RT 231); and petitioner received specific 17) threats from Chris Knox (RT 40) The evidence showed the 18) need for protection in the area: the apartment complex had 19) armed security guards on patrol in the complex daily from 20) 6:00 pm to 2:00 am (RT 108)

21) Petitioner had a Constitutional right to have the jury
22) determine every material issue presented by the evidence.
23) The court's failure to give the requested instruction 24) deprived petitioner of his constitutionally protected rights to 25) due process right and to a jury trial.

- 1) In discussions on jury instructions, the defense requested
- 2) instruction with Caljic number 12.50:
- 3) Mr. Gulley: Yes Your Honor: There is some argument that
- 4) 12.50, use of a firearm by a convicted felon self-defense,
- 5) may be applicable in light of his testimony. (RT 279)
- 6)
- 7) The trial court considered defense counsel's discussion
- 8) of Caljic 12.50 to be a request for instruction (RT 28) The
- 9) Court did so in spite of the inexact phrasing of the request,
- 10) and perhaps in recognition of the overly obsequious
- 11) manner in which counsel at times present requests to the
- 12) bench. This Court should also view defense's counsel's comments
- 13) as a request for instruction. However, petitioner submits that
- 14) the evidence in this case also created a sua sponte duty to
- 15) instruct with Caljic No. 12.50.
- 16)
- 17) The court considered the instruction and declined to
- 18) give it:
- 19) The Court: Okay. Back on the record. 12.50 entitled "Use
- 20) of a firearm by a Convicted Felon Self-defense" is in the
- 21) Court's view designed and restricted to those situations in
- 22) which a person finds himself in a situation without
- 23) any pre-planning, and a firearm is either close at
- 24) hand or immediately given to him for purposes of
- 25) self-defense, and he therefore process [sic] it under those

3 of 6

- 1) those spontaneous circumstances.
- 2) In the instant case, the evidence was that the defendant
- 3) had possessed the firearms for, I think he said, two
- 4) to three months that they've been in his house, and
- 5) that's simply - and that he had to unlock a box to
- 6) get to them, this does not appear to the court to be a
- 7) situation which 12.50 would be applicable because it
- 8) was not a spontaneous quick moving situation where
- 9) he was tossed a gun to defend himself by somebody,
- 10) which I think is what is required here.
- 11) So Mr. Gulley, I will decline to read 12.50 as
- 12) requested by the defense and overrule your objection.
- 13) (See RT 280).
- 14)
- 15) There was substantial evidence petitioner possessed
- 16) firearms for self-defense, but without a preconceived design.
- 17) Petitioner's life had been threatened by Chris Knox before the
- 18) incident on September 12, 2004. Castro, the victim in the
- 19) charged incident, testified he had heard Chris Knox threatened
- 20) to kill petitioner many times in during June through
- 21) August 2004 (RT 27, 40) Petitioner testified about Chris
- 22) Knox's threatening petitioner with a bat, a deadly weapon,
- 23) before September 2004. (RT 213-215) On September 12, 2004,
- 24) Chris Knox again threatened petitioner with a bat (RT 33, 74)
- 25) Talvera testified Chris Knox also had threatened her

4 of 6

- 1) mother, Teich, the apartment manager (RT 172) Additionally,
- 2) petitioner had been attacked at his apartment complex and
- 3) required 16 stitches as a result (RT 222) Petitioner testified
- 4) there was a lot of gang activity in the neighborhood
- 5) where he lived: (RT 231) Other (prosecution) evidence
- 6) also tendered to prove the need for protection in the
- 7) area. The apartment complex had armed security officers
- 8) on patrol in the complex daily from 6:00 pm to 2:00 am
- 9) (RT 108) This would hardly be an expense the landlord
- 10) would undertake if the circumstance did not warrant it.
- 11) The fact that petitioner possessed the firearm(s)
- 12) for approximately six months was irrelevant to the court's
- 13) duty to instruct with Caljic No. 1250. There was substantial
- 14) evidence from multiple sources, including petitioner and
- 15) Jose Castro, that Chris Knox had threatened petitioner's
- 16) life, and did so while Knox himself was armed with a
- 17) deadly weapon, a bat. The 911 tape itself also established
- 18) that Rebecca Knox threatened to shoot petitioner in the
- 19) face (CT. 9) That situation in petitioner's home environment
- 20) created a peril against which he was permitted to defend
- 21) himself. While the threats against petitioner's life did not
- 22) present the immediacy of those threats, the threats were
- 23) not imminent. Substantial evidence showed that on an
- 24) ongoing basis petitioner was in "imminent peril" not only
- 25) from Chris Knox, but also from the apartment complex

506

- 1) that he lived in. Additionally, he was in peril, and
- 2) indeed already had been attacked due to the bad
- 3) neighborhood where he lived. There were gangs in the
- 4) area and he had suffered an attack requiring 16 stitches.
- 5) Further, petitioner's six-month possession did not equate
- 6) to a "preconceived design." (See Caljic 12.50) The term
- 7) "preconceived design" is even undefined in California law.
- 8) But the fact that petitioner correctly anticipated a
- 9) specific emergency situation did not make his possession
- 10) part of a preconceived design. The question of whether
- 11) petitioner possessed the firearm(s) for self-defense was a
- 12) question of fact for the jury, not the judge.
- 13) The error is of federal constitutional magnitude
- 14) and, at a minimum reversal is required unless the prosecution
- 15) can demonstrate the error was harmless beyond a reasonable
- 16) doubt. But because a defense was entirely omitted from
- 17) the jury's consideration, case specific harmless-error analysis
- 18) is not required and the error is reversible per se.
- 19) Even applying the inclination of California Courts
- 20) to review this kind of error under a test determining
- 21) whether the issue was resolved against the defendant in
- 22) another context under proper instructions, the result
- 23) here would be the same. The issue was never resolved
- 24) by the jury against petitioner in any context.
- 25) Thus, this is the type of issue where this Court should

60f6

- 1) not try to weigh the evidence relating to the omitted
- 2) defense theory. The result still would be that the wrong
- 3) entity, a court, not the jury, would make a fact-finding
- 4) Petitioner was entitled to have his jury determine
- 5) whether he had an honest belief that he was in
- 6) "imminent peril" such that he was justified in defending
- 7) himself. The jury, not a reviewing court, was in a position
- 8) to view petitioner's demeanor and that of the other
- 9) witnesses who testified about the threats in the neighborhood
- 10) The demeanor of those witnesses, and of petitioner, were
- 11) central to a credibility determination which is the crux
- 12) of this issue. Hence, this error is not susceptible to
- 13) harmless error review. Accordingly, petitioner's conviction
- 14) on Count 3 should be reversed.

28. Consent to Magistrate Judge Jurisdiction

In order to insure the just, speedy and inexpensive determination of Section 2254 habeas cases filed in this district, the parties may waive their right to proceed before a district judge and consent to magistrate judge jurisdiction. Upon consent of all the parties under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) to such jurisdiction, the magistrate judge will conduct all proceedings including the entry of final judgment. The parties are free to withhold consent without adverse substantive consequences.

The Court encourages parties to consent to a magistrate judge as it will likely result in an earlier resolution of this matter. If you request that a district judge be designated to decide dispositive matters, a magistrate judge will nevertheless hear and decide all non-dispositive matters and will hear and issue a recommendation to the district judge as to all dispositive matters.

You may consent to have a magistrate judge conduct any and all further proceedings in this case, including the entry of final judgment, by indicating your consent below.

Issues raised in Court of Appeal

1.) The trial court erred by denying appellants request to cross-examine Rebecca Knox regarding her prior domestic violence accusations against her husband, Christopher Knox, which she later recanted, and thereby violated appellants State and Federal Constitutional right to present a defense and to cross-examine witness against him.

2.) The trial court erred in giving Celjic Number 2.52, the Statutory flight instruction, over defense objection thereby violating appellants due process rights.

3.) The court erred by denying the defense request to instruct with Celjic Number 12.50, when the evidence warranted such instruction, and the failure to instruct impermissibly reduced the prosecution's burden of proof and violated appellants due process and trial rights.

Issues raised in the California Supreme Court

1.) Whether the trial court erred by denying petitioner's request to cross-examine Rebecca Knox regarding her husband, Christopher Knox, which she later recanted, and thereby violated petitioner's State and Federal Constitutional rights to present and defense and to cross-examine witnesses against him.

2.) Whether the court erred by denying the defense request to instruct with Caljic Number 12.50 when the evidence warranted such instruction, and the failure to instruct impermissibly reduced the prosecution's burden of proof and violated petitioner's due process and trial rights.

3.) Whether the trial court erred in giving Caljic Number 2.52, the statutory flight instruction, over defense objection thereby violating petitioner's due process rights.

In re JAMES CUNNINGHAM on Habeas Corpus

The petition for writ of habeas corpus is denied. (See In re Waltreus (1965) 62 Cal.2d 218; In re Dixon (1953) 41 Cal.2d 756; In re Swain (1949) 34 Cal.2d 300, 304; People v. Duvall (1995) 9 Cal.4th 464, 474; In re Lindley (1947) 29 Cal.2d 709.)

SUPREME COURT

Chief Justice

(EXH. E)

(Exh. F) p.1 of 3

The Supreme Court should not summarily deny this instant Petition because petitioner's claims are not untimely and unjustifiably delayed since he was not aware of the evidence, events, facts and law to support this petition, due to the lack of educational background of the petitioner.

There is, of course, no fixed limit on the time of application, and mere delay, no matter how great, will not compel denial. (See In re James (1952) 38 C.2d 302, 309, 240 P.2d 596 [Explanation of ignorance, illiteracy, lack of friends to intercede and procure legal advice held sufficient].) In re Perez (1966) 65 Cal.2d 224, 228, 53 Cal. Rptr. 414, 418 P.2d 6 [three year delay between sentencing and filing of petition excused where petitioner had not completed 7th grade, was not knowledgeable about legal procedures, and diligently used resources available to prisoners for research and preparation of legal documents].) (See Exh. G).

Petitioner contends that this Honorable Court should not summarily deny this instant petition on the grounds that the petitioner has a Fifth grade elementary education ~~now~~ and if it wasn't for the help of a fellow inmate Elliott Lew Griffin #46065, petitioner would have never discovered these claims.

Petitioner further contends prior to the assistant of inmate Griffin, he was not aware of any information or law to even indicate a factual or legal basis for various claims and had no reason to believe these claims might be made, especially after being represented by counsel on direct appeal. Moreover, petitioner declares that he is ignorant of the law, knew nothing of his legal rights or procedures, no knowledge of what a habeas petition was, or what it consisted of, (which is proved by the fact that petitioner has a 5th grade elementary education (See EXH. G) and was unable to file this petition on his own) These claims were not raised in an earlier petition, due to the fact that petitioner is incarcerated in State Prison and faced with the scarcity of channels through which legal assistance is available to illiterate prisoners.

Petitioner asserts, "to the extent that these claims were not raised in an earlier petition

or on direct appeal is the result also of the inexcusable failure of his Appellate Counsel to raise crucial assignments of error that arguably might have resulted in reversal deprived petitioner of effective assistance of counsel on direct appeal. (In re Smith (1970) 3 Cal.3d 192, 202 [90 Cal.Rptr. 1, 474 P.2d 929]); In re Banks, supra, 4 Cal.3d 337; See also People v. Rhoden 6 Cal.3d 529.

Petitioner further contends for each of these various and foregoing reasons, including the Supporting declaration of inmate Griffin and the substantial factor that petitioner has a 5th grade elementary education, this Honorable Supreme Court should not procedurally bar him from litigating the merits of these several claims on the bars of laches because with the assistance of inmate Griffin these claims were found in October, November 2007 and this Habeas Petition has been filed as diligently and as promptly as the circumstances allowed.

Elliott Griffin Supporting Declaration:

1) My name is Elliott Lew Griffin, my CDCR# is V46065 and I am currently incarcerated at California Men's Colony State Prison in San Luis Obispo, Ca.

2) I have recently started my own program in helping assist illiterate inmates, and/or inmates with mental or medical disabilities. Wherefore, petitioner, James H. Cunningham #V-72323 falls with 2 of these categories.

3) I meet with, petitioner James H. Cunningham in October, 2007, to discuss his current legal issues. Upon meeting with petitioner, I reviewed petitioner's Reporter's Transcript and found several arguable issues. I discussed these arguable issues with petitioner and since November 2007, I have since then conducted an on-going investigation.

4) In December 2007, I helped petitioner file a request for Stay and Abeyance, of his Federal Habeas Petition, so that he could return to the State Courts to exhaust these several newly discovered arguments that is contained in Grounds (1-3) of the instant Petition.

5) Thus, I Elliott Lew Griffin, have recently

7.) I will also next help petitioner Cunningham, file a request for appointment of counsel to represent him for his lack of educational background and mental health disorders

United States District Court
Southern District of California

James H. Cunningham, Petitioner,

VS.

John Marshall (Warden CMC-E)
Respondent.

Case No. 07 cv 2183 Dms (RBB)

Request for Stay and Abeyance of Petitioner's Federal Habeas Petition to Exhaust Several Unexhausted
Claims in the State Court.

Petitioner, James H. Cunningham, in pro se, respectfully request this Honorable Court grant him him a stay and abeyance of his Federal Habeas petition, on the grounds that he has recently sent a Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus to the California
Supreme Court, to exhaust the newly discovered
Grounds (1-3) that are included in his First Amended Federal Habeas Petition. In wake of the U.S. Supreme Court recent decision in (Rhines v. Weber (2005) 124 S.Ct. 1528)

Petitioner Basis this motion on the facts and ①

1. ~~and~~ memorandum points and authorities stating why this
2. Honorable District Court should grant the petitioner a
3. Stay and Abeyance.
- 4.

5. Petitioner could not with due diligence present these
 6. unexhausted claims in the State Court based on the fact that
 7. the appellate counsel should have raised these several 8. arguable issues on direct appeal, in which the claims were 9. recently discovered and not known to the petitioner until 10. after the State Habeas proceedings were terminated, and 11. petitioner's one year Federal statute of limitations had 12. almost run out. Petitioner, who recently only became
 13. "aware" of the factual basis for Ground (1-3) by a fellow
 14. inmate named Elliott Lew Griffin, who immediately
 15. conducted an ongoing investigation, drafted and wrote
 16. the potentially meritorious claims. In addition, petitioner
 17. has a elementary grade education and suffers from mental 18. health disorders, and thus, establishing a good cause for 19. delay (In re Clark (1993) 21 Cal. Rptr. 2d 509)

 21. Petitioner hereby sends this United States District-
 22. Court, Southern District of California, the First Amended
 23. Federal Habeas Petition, on the grounds that Grounds
 24. (1-3) are unexhausted claims not presented and decided
 25. by the State Courts.

26.
 27. Wherefore, after careful review of the law, it has
 28. come apparent to the petitioner's attention, that unexhausted

1. Claims can be presented to the California Supreme Court
2. to the exhaust the unexhausted claims, while the
3. petitioner's Federal Habeas Petition is stayed in the higher
4. Court.

6. In addition, petitioner claims that after a thorough
7. thorough search through trial records for Exhibits to
8. support these claims, petitioner has immediately sought
9. relief in this District Court. The newly discovered evidence
10. is a basis for relief on the grounds that petitioner was 11. denied his Constitutional Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and 12. Fourteenth Amendment rights during the course of his 13. trial and on direct appeal.

14. Memorandum Points and Authorities:

17. A Federal Court has no power to hear a mixed petition, 18. and must either 1.) Dismiss the entire petition without 19. prejudice (meaning you can file again in Federal Court
20. without running into the successive petition bar); or 2.) Allow 21. the petitioner to dismiss the unexhausted claims and go
22. forward in Federal Court with an Amended Petition
23. containing only the exhausted claims.

24.
25. Making one of the claims creates a dilemma for the 26. Federal Petitioner. The problem with alternate (2) is that it
27. requires the permanent dismissal of unexhausted claims
28. (or unexhausted facts within otherwise exhausted claims)

406

1. which might, upon exhaustion, have a better chance of success
2. than the already exhausted claims.
- 3.

4. The problem with (1) is that although the dismissal
5. is without prejudice, the time spent in Federal Court
6. prior to the dismissal is not tolled against the AEDPA
7. Statute of limitations. Usually, by the time a Federal
8. court gets around to issuing a ruling forcing the petitioner
9. deal with a mixed petition, whatever time remained on the 10. Statute of limitations will have been used up, so that it will
11. be impossible to go back to state court, exhaust, and come
12. back to Federal Court without the new Federal Petition
13. being barred by the statute of limitations.

14.
15. In an effort to deal with the dilemma, lower Federal
16. courts began offering the petitioner "Stay and Abeyance" as a
17. third alternative, allowing the petitioner to dismiss the 18. unexhausted claims but "staging" the Federal Petition
19. instead of dismissing it while the petitioner returned to 20. the state court to exhaust his unexhausted claims

21.
22. In James v. Piller, 269 F.3d 1124, 1127 (9th Cir. 2001) it
23. referred to its decision in Calderon v. United States
24. District Court (Taylor) 134 F.3d 981 (9th Cir 1998) The Ninth
25. Circuit noted that, on remand, the District Court "may 26. exercise in discretion in determining whether to grant
27. [Petitioner] A Stay [of his petition] while he attempts to 28. exhaust the unexhausted claims

④

5 of 6

1. In Kelly v. Small, 315 F.3d 1063, 1069-1071 (9th Cir. 2002) cert.
2. denied 533 U.S. 1042. (2003) It stated "The District Court must
3. consider the alternative of staying the petition after dismissal
4. of unexhausted claims, in order to permit petitioner to exhaust
5. those claims, and then add them by Amendment to his 6. Stayed Federal Petition" The Court observed that the 7. exercise of [this] discretion ... is particularly
8. appropriate for the petitioner to return to Federal Court
9. within one year limitation period imposed by ... § 2244(c)

10.
11. Stay and Abeyance allows the petitioner to return
12. to State Court to exhaust the unexhausted claims, but as 13. long as he files the state exhaustion petition promptly after 14. dismissing his unexhausted claims and promptly returns to 15. Federal Court after exhaustion is completed, the original
16. Federal Petition, will be there waiting, and the petitioner
17. can simply move to amend the stayed petition to add
18. the newly exhausted claims.

19.
20. The Court noted in Zaruela v. Artuz, 254 F.3d 374
21. (2nd Cir. 2001) suggested that thirty days is sufficient time
22. for a petitioner to return to Federal Court following final
23. action by the state courts "and declared that this
24. seems reasonable."

25.
26. The unexhausted claims are "Potentially Meritorious"
27. because it will either reverse petitioner's conviction's or 28. reduce petitioner's sentence and good cause for the 6066

1. failure to exhaust the unexhausted claims before filing in
2. Federal Court is shown based on the fact that these facts
3. were not known, and could not at any time been presented
4. at an earlier time. (People v. Shipman (1965) 42 Cal. Rptr. 1;
5. In re Clark (1993) 21 Cal. Rptr. 2d 509).

7. Based on the foregoing reasons, petitioner humbly
8. prays that this Honorable District Court will "grant"
9. petitioner's Amended Motion for Stay and Abeyance, Stay
10. petitioner's First Amended Petition, until the California
11. Supreme Court has had a chance to rule on petitioner's
12. unexhausted claims that he has set forth in Grounds (1-3)
13. of his First Amended Federal Habeas Petition. ~~RECEIVED~~

15. I, James H. Cunningham, declare under penalty of 16. perjury, that I have read the above facts and 17. statements and the foregoing is true to the best of my 18. knowledge and beliefs.

26. Petitioner In Pro Se.

(EXH I) 1 of 2

Petitioner, James H. Cunningham, in pro per, respectfully brings the instant Habeas Petition to this Honorable California Supreme Court, on the grounds that he had a Federal Habeas Petition pending in the United States District Court, Southern District of California on a Stay and Abeyance, and wish to exhaust state remedies of these claims set forth in Grounds (1-3), pursuant to California Rules of Court, rule 8.508(a).

Petitioner contends that this case presents no grounds for review under rule 8.500(b) and this instant petition is filed solely to exhaust state remedies, so petitioner can proceed with his Federal Habeas Petition.

Petitioner was convicted at jury trial in San Diego County, Superior Court, East County, of Assault with personal use of a firearm, in violation of Pen C § 245(a)(2) and 12022.5(a), Possession of a firearm by a felon, in violation of Pen C § 12021(a)(1), Possession of a Short Barreled Shotgun, in violation of Pen C § 12020(a) and prior strike conviction and conviction of serious felony, in violation of Pen C § 667.5(b) through (i) and subdivision (a). Petitioner was sentenced to a total term of 12 years with 85%

in State Prison.

Petitioner claims the factual and legal basis for these claims are made on the grounds that petitioner recieved Ineffective Assistance of Counsel on direct appeal when his Court appointed appellate counsel failed to raise arguable issues on direct appeal that arguably might have resulted in reversal and also Ineffective assistance of counsel during trial when his Court appointed defense counsel committed numerous errors, from failing to object and or raise several arguable issues during trial.

In addition, the revision of 1966, the pertinent provisions of article VI. Section 5, were incorporated in article VI. Section 10, which now provides in part: "The Supreme Court, court of appeal, superior courts, and their judges have original jurisdiction in habeas corpus proceedings.
